Dear

Thank you for agreeing to serve on the Peer Review Board for the Canyon Journal of Interdisciplinary Studies (CJIS). Your knowledge, expertise, and discernment are greatly appreciated. The primary mission of the journal is to provide an avenue for the dissemination of XXX pieces; as such, your review and recommendations should emphasize XXX. The goals of CJIS are to:

- XXX

As a member of the Peer Review Board for CJIS, please consider that this journal is a peer-reviewed publication, and, as is the nature of refereed journals, acceptance and publication of original manuscripts is a competitive process. As a reviewer, you are expected to provide a complete, fair, thoughtful evaluation of manuscripts to ensure all published articles are of acceptable quality. In addition, you are simultaneously working to encourage the dissemination of scholarly endeavors, so your conscientious, detailed feedback to authors is of utmost importance.

Your peer review(s) should be completed by XXX (allowing 4 weeks for review). Please complete the online review form at XXX.

I would like to again thank you for being a valuable member of the Peer Review Board. Attached to this email are the manuscripts for you to review along with review guidelines.

If you have any questions or need additional assistance, please contact me at XXX.

Thank you,
