

IDEAS

COLLABOR

INSPIRATION

INNOVATION

EXCELLENCE IN COLLEGE TEACHING

SEPTEMBER 14, 2011

Mori Kemper, Director of Professional Development

GRAND CANYON
UNIVERSITY™

Creating a Classroom Environment Aligned to our Christian Worldview

- Please choose a seat at a table with colleagues from another college.
- TouchStones:
 - Guidelines that create an environment for professional learning.
- Prayer

Agenda

1. Welcome!

2. Collegial Conversation:

“How do we create a classroom environment that is aligned to our Christian Worldview and GCU Values and for what purpose?”

3. Reflection & Evaluation

Objectives

- To have a collegial conversation that explores the way in which we create a classroom environment that is aligned to our Christian Worldview and our GCU Values, and the purpose for doing so.
- To capture in writing the ideas and suggestions shared in our conversations.

Excellence in College Teaching

1. Identify who will be responsible for each of the Table Conversation Roles at your table.
2. Subject-Centered
 - *Read our GCU Vision, Mission and The Narrative on Values-Based Education. (on Tables)
3. Have a Collegial Conversation that allows each participant to share How we create a classroom environment that is aligned to our Christian Worldview and our Purpose for doing so.

Excellence in College Teaching

4. Capture the ideas and suggestion on the chart paper. (You will have 30 minutes)
5. Post your charts around the room.
6. Gallery Walk (10 minutes)
7. Evaluation-Include your reflection and how you can apply what you learned in your classroom

Evaluation

- Please take a minute to complete the Evaluation.
- Merci Beaucoup!!
- Foundations for Teaching & Learning in the College Classroom: Induction Seminar
 - Wednesday, September 28th 10:45-11:45AM McKinley

- Campus:
 - Mori Kemper, MA, MEd
 - Director of Professional Development
 - Williams Building #133
 - mori.kemper@gcu.edu
 - 602-639-7646
- Online Website:

